H .- FRIENDSHIP. June is dear; But the promise of the year Yields no ripe fruition here: Flowers are less than they appear. Has she roses? More and sweeter Than the fairies ever grew; Yet I wait a joy completer Than these June days ever knew.

HI.-BROTHER-AND-SISTER-HOOD. Fond July! 'Neath this warmer, brighter sky, All her graces multiply, Shall my soul be glad, or sigh? Hopes of truit and lears of blighting Work, within my anxious heart. Strange Mosales, most delighting When innocent of art.

IV .-- LOVE. August heat .
Life in love is here complete; Fruits are ripening rare and sweet; Hence I would not find retreat, This is love; so closely blended With July's prophetic sun, Who can tell me where it ended, And these perfect joys begun?

"Too Low, And Yet Too High."

BY PAUL H. HAYNE.

He came in velvet and in gold : He wooed her with a careless grace; A confidence too rashly bold Breathed in his language and his face While she-a simple maid-replied: These tricks of passion I deride, Nor trust thy boasted verity. Thy suir, with artful smile and sigh, Resign, resign: No mate am I for thee or thine,

Being too low, and yet too high!" His spirit changed; his heart grew warm With genuine passion: morn by morn More perfect seemed the virgin charm That owned her 'mid the ripening corn And as she woodd with fervent mien, With soul intense, and words of fire, But reverence-fraught, as if a queen

Were hearkening to his heart's desire. She brightly blushed, she gently sighed. (Though in sad accents, wearily): "Thy suit resign, Resign, resign!
